KOREAN INSTITUTE FOR HUMAN RIGHTS

January 6, 1986

Mr. William J. Casey, Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Old Executive Office Building
Washington, DC 20506

Dear Mr. Casey:

As you know, South Korea's opposition leader Kim Dae Jung had been on exile for two years in the United States. During that time he spent a year at the Center for International Affairs, Harvard University as a visiting fellow. I am pleased to present to you the fruit of Mr. Kim's research at Harvard, Mass-Participatory Economy: A Democratic Alternative for Korea, published jointly by the CFIA and University Press of America.

Mr. Kim greatly appreciates your concern for human rights and democracy in Korea and, in particular, the understanding and encouragement you gave him during the lonely days of his exile. He asked me to send you a complimentary copy of his book, which I am honored to do.

Sincerely yours,

Jong Keun You
Acting President
